What is Inspire?

Inspire Grants for Small Museums

Inspire = Inspire Grants for Small Museums

Inspire! supports projects that strengthen the ability of a small museum to serve its public.

Activities might reflect museums as:

- active resources for lifelong learning
- institutions important in improving the well-being of their communities
- good stewards of the nation's collections

Emphasis is on local impact.

Children's Museum of New Hampshire

Inspire and Your Strategic Plan

Inspire projects are expected to focus on a key component of your museum's strategic plan.

IMLS wants to support your museum in priority areas that benefit your community.

What is a Small Museum?

Applicants should think about a range of attributes that describe their organization, such as:

- number of staff members and volunteers
- estimate of total person-hours worked per week;
- operating budget and sources of revenue;
- number and types of objects in the collection;
- size of facility and property;
- types and numbers of audiences served; and
- size relative to other organizations of the same discipline, or within the same geographic region.

What Can Inspire Fund?

Inspire Funds Projects

What is a “project”? A temporary endeavor undertaken to create a unique product, service, or result.

Historic Cherry Hill

- A project is temporary in that it has a defined beginning and end in time, and therefore defined scope and resources.
- And a project is unique in that it is not a routine operation, but a specific set of operations designed to accomplish a singular goal.

Inspire Program Goal and Objectives

Program Goal: Build the capacity of small museums to provide museum services to their communities.

- Objective 1, Lifelong Learning: Support the development of experiential, cross-disciplinary learning experiences in small museums.
- Objective 2, Institutional Capacity: Support the institutional capacity of small museums.
- Objective 3, Collections Stewardship and Access: Support the management and care of collections in small museums.

Inspire Lifelong Learning

- Public programs, adult programs, family programs, and early childhood programs.
- Exhibitions, interpretation, and digital media.
- In-school and out-of-school programs.

Successful Lifelong Learning projects will provide high-quality, inclusive educational opportunities that address particular audience needs.

Inspire Institutional Capacity

Objective 2, Institutional Capacity: Support the institutional capacity of small museums.

- Recruitment, training, and development of museum staff and volunteers.
- Foundational organizational policies and procedures

Successful Institutional Capacity projects strive to build the capacity of the small museum workforce and the institution itself.

Inspire Collections Stewardship and Access

Objective 3, Collections Stewardship and Access: Support the management and care of collections in small museums.

- Cataloging, inventorying, and registration; collections information management; and collections planning.
- Conservation and environmental improvement and/or rehousing; conservation surveys; and conservation treatment.
- Database management, digital asset management, and digitization.

Successful Collections Stewardship and Access projects contribute to the long-term preservation of, increased access to, and expanded use of materials entrusted to the museum's care.

Choosing a Program Objective

Lifelong Learning

Institutional Capacity

Collections Stewardship
and Access

Having a hard time choosing? Try these:

1. Think carefully about what is “in the center” of your project. Who or what will benefit from your work? What will be improved once you’ve finished your project?
2. Decide whom you want to review your application. What kind of skillset and experience do you want them to have?
3. List all the activities you plan to carry out and assign each to an objective. Which objective includes the largest number of activities? Where will most of the resources be spent?

What Size Are Inspire Projects?

Inspire project budgets can range in size

Small Project: $5,000 - $25,000 in federal grants funds with no cost share required.

Large Project: $25,001 - $75,000 in federal grant funds with 1:1 cost share required.

Application Components

Narrative

Narrative: Project Justification

Tell us:

- Which Inspire! objective will your project address?
- How will your project advance your museum's strategic plan?
- What need, problem, or challenge will your project address, and how was it identified?
- Who is the primary audience for your project and how have they been involved in the planning?
- Who are the ultimate beneficiaries for this project?
- For Collections Stewardship and Access projects, Describe and quantify the collections and/or records that are the focus of your project, and their current condition.

Narrative: Project Justification Continued

Reviewers will look for:

- How well does the proposal align with the selected Inspire! objective?
- Does this project advance the museum's strategic plan in specific and measurable ways?
- How well has the applicant used relevant data and other evidence to describe the need, problem, or challenge to be addressed?
- Has the applicant appropriately defined the primary audience(s) and beneficiaries, as applicable, for this work?
- Have the primary audience and other project stakeholders been appropriately involved in planning the project?
- For Collections Stewardship and Access projects: Are the collections and/or records that are the focus of the project and their current condition described and quantified in enough detail?

Defining a need, problem, or challenge

- Remember that the federal government wants its investment to result in something getting better.
- Articulate what will get better as a result of your project as precisely as possible.
- Identify why it is important that this change happens.
- Hone your problem definition carefully.
- Present data that support your problem definition.

Narrative: Project Work Plan

Tell us:

- What specific activities will you carry out and in what sequence?
- What are the risks to the project and how will you mitigate them?
- Who will plan, implement, and manage your project?
- What time, financial, personnel, and other resources will you need to carry out the activities?
- How will you track your progress toward achieving your intended results?

Narrative: Project Work Plan

Reviewers will look for:

- Are the proposed activities informed by relevant theory and practice?
- Are the goals, assumptions, and risks clearly stated?
- Do the identified staff, partners, consultants, and service providers possess the experience and skills necessary to complete the work successfully?
- Are the time, financial, personnel, and other resources identified realistic for the scope and scale of the project?
- If present, does the Digital Products Plan reflect appropriate practices and standards for creating and managing the types of digital products proposed?
- Will the proposed methods for tracking the project's progress toward achieving the intended results allow course adjustments when necessary and result in reliable and measurable information about the results of the project?

Defining an activity

- An activity is something that someone does.
- It has a beginning and an end.
- You know when you've finished it because it doesn't need to be done any more (or it is no longer on your To Do List).
- It is not a “goal,” “result,” or “outcome.” It is a thing you do as part of striving to achieve those.
- Aim for a reasonable level of granularity in identifying your activities—not too much, not too little, just right.

Defining risks

About Risk

- There is no checklist of risks, but every project has them.
- The best proposals will show that the applicant is aware of them and has thought through a plan for dealing with them.
- Answer the question, “What if?”

Examples of Risk

- A project may be structured around interns, who will be selected and trained according to well thought-out processes. What will happen if one or more interns drops out? What’s the plan for replacing them mid-project?
- A project involving rehousing collections into new museum-quality collections storage furniture might run into delays in preparing the space or in the delivery of the cabinets. What happens to the collection items then? How will the institution ensure that they remain safe and secure?

Narrative: Project Results

Tell us:

- What are your project's intended results and how will they address the need, problem, or challenge you have identified?
- How will the knowledge, skills, behaviors, and/or attitudes of the primary audience change because of your project?
- What products will result from your project, and how will you make them accessible to the primary audience?
- How will you sustain the benefit(s) of your project beyond the conclusion of the period of performance?
- For Collections Stewardship and Access projects: How will the care, condition, management, access to, or use of the museum collections and/or associated data that define the focus of your project improve?

Narrative: Project Results

Reviewers will look for:

- Are the project's intended results clearly articulated, realistic, meaningful, and linked to the need, problem, or challenge addressed by the project?
- Is the plan to effect meaningful change in knowledge, skills, behaviors, and/or attitudes solidly grounded and appropriately structured?
- Will the products created by the project be made available and accessible to the primary audience?
- Is the plan to sustain the benefits of the project beyond the conclusion of the period of performance reasonable and practical?
- For Collections Stewardship and Access projects: Will the care, condition, management, access to, or use of the museum collections and/or records improve as a result of the project?

Defining intended results, success measures

- Answer the question, “What will be better as the result of this work?”
- Think through how you’ll recognize success and how you’ll measure it for each of your high-level activities.
- Tie everything back to your need, problem, or challenge.
- Include tangential benefits or positive outcomes, but make sure they are in addition to, not instead of, your original intended results.
- Consider constructing a logic model to explain your intended results and your plan for achieving them.

Narrative Recap

- Your Narrative has three sections—Project Justification, Project Work Plan, and Project Results
- 5-page maximum
- Refer to the review criteria in Step 6 of the Notice of Funding Opportunity

For example:

- In Salaries and Wages, you should identify each person whose salary or wages will be paid with IMLS funds or by cost share. If cost share is being provided by unpaid volunteers, explain how you arrived at the dollar amount used to represent the value of their services.
- In Supplies, Materials and Equipment you should list each type of supply, material, and equipment you propose to purchase or provide as cost share for the project. Provide vendor quotes or price lists as Supporting Documents with your application.
