

ASSOCIATION OF AFRICAN AMERICAN
MUSEUMS

Established as the voice of the African American Museums Movement, AAAM is a membership organization established to support African and African American focus museums and professionals nationally and internationally.

Honoring the Past—
Preparing for the Future

Honoring the Past

A roll of white paper is shown in the bottom left, partially unrolled, with a jagged, torn edge. The paper is set against a dark blue, textured background.

Mission: To strengthen and advocate for the interests of institutions and individuals committed to the preservation and interpretation of African and African American art, history and culture.

Dr. Margaret Burroughs DuSable Museum of African American History
Chicago, Illinois

Charles H. Wright Museum of African American History
Detroit, Michigan

Administration & Development

Curators, Archivists, Registrars, Exhibit

Professional Development

Educators & Special Events

Disaster Task Force

Directors Roundtable

Standing Professional Committees

Re-Organizing to Serve Your Needs

Discipline Specific Committees

AASLH
American Association
for State and Local History

9-Communities of Practice

22 Professional Networks

American Alliance of Museums

Regional Branches

Founders of Black History Month

Association for the Study of African American Life and History

2013 Annual Conference

The Business of Museums: Making Institutions Sustainable

August 7-10, 2013

Charlotte, North Carolina

Hosted by: The Harvey B. Gantt Center for African American Arts + Culture

Contact Information:

AAAM Board Officers

Samuel Black, President

black@blackmuseums.org

Dr. Deborah Mack, Vice President

mack@blackmuseums.org

Nona Martin, Treasurer

martin@blackmuseums.org

Auntaneshia Staveloz, Secretary

staveloz@blackmuseums.org

Mailing Address:

P.O. Box 23698

Washington, DC 20026

(202) 218-7685

www.blackmuseums.org

